GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS GRIMSLEY TO VOLUNTEERISM AND COMMUNITY SERVICE COMMISSION

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Megan L. Grimsley of Pembroke to the North Carolina Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service.

Grimsley is a customer service representative at The Medicine Shoppe. She is a member of the American Chemical Society and a 2005 recipient of the Continuing in Chemistry award. She is a junior majoring in chemistry and biology at UNC at Pembroke.

The commission advises and assists in the development of a comprehensive statewide service plan for promoting volunteer involvement and citizen participation in North Carolina. The commission also encourages service in community and state problem-solving and works to promote and support voluntary citizen involvement in government and private programs. The commission has 25 members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
